

NAIFA Policy on Chapter Use of NAIFA Member Lists

NAIFA Chapter access to NAIFA member lists and data is subject to compliance with this NAIFA Policy on Chapter Use of NAIFA Member Lists.

NAIFA member lists and data are confidential and proprietary information of NAIFA. Any unauthorized use or disclosure of NAIFA member lists and data could cause direct and substantial harm and damage to NAIFA.

NAIFA provides NAIFA Chapters with access to NAIFA member lists and data for the sole purpose of supporting NAIFA and NAIFA Chapter programs and activities. Use of NAIFA member lists or data for any other purpose is strictly prohibited.

NAIFA Chapters and Chapter leaders must maintain the confidentiality of NAIFA member lists and data and must not disclose to, or share with, any third-party person or entity any NAIFA member list or data.

NAIFA member lists and data are shared with, or made accessible to, NAIFA Chapters and Chapter leaders on the condition that they agree (a) to use NAIFA member lists and data only in connection with NAIFA and NAIFA Chapter programs; (b) to maintain the confidentiality of NAIFA member lists and data; (c) not to disclose to, or share with, any third-party person or entity any NAIFA member list or data; (d) to return to NAIFA or destroy NAIFA member lists and data as directed by NAIFA; and (e) to notify NAIFA if any of the foregoing obligations have or may have been breached.
